

Teacher of the year! NOT

My teacher is possibly the worst teacher in the world! She is the smelliest, meanest, smallest, ugliest and grumpiest teacher EVER! If there was a worst teacher award she would win it! And guess what i've been stuck with her for 2 years... and they were possibly the worst 2 years of my life! Here's why she's the worst teacher...ever!

Another reason I believe that she always makes work SO boring! It's so boring because she never explains anything! One day we were doing writing and no one knew how to do it and she just sent us off telling us what to do but not explaining it, and then she yelled at us for not doing it right! Also she always gives us the same maths worksheet over and over and over again! Doesn't she want us to have an education? We ALWAYS do have to type up our work on our laptops, and it bores everyone out! Can't we write something in our book. The reason I hate going on our laptops all the time because of spell check we aren't learning if we are using spell check!!

In my opinion Miss K. is so small she can never reach ANYTHING! Because she's so small she has to get students that are taller than her to write things up and it ALWAYS interrupts our work! She's so small that she can't reach the top of the board so she has to rub off work that we are learning from to add other things. I can't memorise everything Miss K. I feel that she isn't a good role model because.... She stands up on the table while little kids are around to put up work! What if the kids start getting up on the table and then fall off! Seriously this woman is CRAZY!

It is certain that Miss K. always goes on about her personal life story's... Miss K. goes on about the boringest story's and it makes everyone sleep and then at home we don't get any sleep because we've had a nice rest at school! If she tells us any other story's we won't get any work done and then maybe we won't get into high school or university! She is SO boring I don't want to even come to school! Everyday she tells us the exact same story and I just don't think I can stand it anymore.

I'm pretty sure I've convinced you that my teacher is horrible! I think that my teacher couldn't possibly get worse... But if she could she won't be getting a boyfriend for a very long time, maybe not at all! If you agree with me nominate her for the worst teacher of the year award! I don't think I can last another 3 terms with her....SAVE ME!
